On May 3, 2006, the Defendant, Robert Bryant, was sentenced to one (1) day imprisonment, followed by three (3) years of supervised release, for bank fraud, a Class B felony. His supervised release commenced on May 4, 2006.

On or about March 20, 2008, the Defendant's probation officer submitted a violation report alleging a violation of the terms of supervised release:

(1) Unauthorized Use of a Controlled Substance

The Defendant appeared before Magistrate Judge James S. Gallas for a violation hearing on May 14, 2008, and was represented by counsel. Magistrate Gallas issued a report and recommendation informing the Court that Defendant admitted to the violation and recommending that the Court find that Defendant has violated the terms of his supervised release. As a result, the Court finds that the Defendant has violated the terms of his supervised release.

The Court has considered the statutory maximum sentence of three years pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(3). The Court has also considered the advisory policy statements set forth in Chapter Seven of the United States Sentencing Guidelines prior to imposing sentence. The guideline range is 3-9 months pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 7B1.4(a). Furthermore, the Court has considered the factors for sentencing listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) and 3583(d).

Based on this Court's review of all relevant factors, the Court hereby orders that the Defendant's supervised release is REVOKED, and the Defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for nine (9) months. The sentence shall be held in abeyance until September 15, 2008, at 1:30p.m., when the Court will determine whether or not to implement the sentence imposed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
